Summary Report and hearing outcome

A Research Methodology workshop was organised by Research Committee for the students. Day 1 of the workshop was taken by Dr. Ravivyas in which he gave basic idea of research to students, Types of research, importance of research and main objectives behind conducting such workshops.

Day 2 session was taken by Dr. Anubhuti Sharma in which she explained the Problems of research, Types of research in detail by giving real life examples. A small quiz was also there to test the understanding about research types. Small glimpse of Literature Review and Research Design was also covered. We have shared the notes as well with the students for better understanding. There was good and keen participation of students on both the days of workshop.

Learning outcome - (1) How to go with Conceptual research (2) To know about types of Research (3) To know about LOR and its importance

Report :-

The Department of Humanities organized a National Conference on September 18th, 2023. The theme was "Education and Multi-Cultural Issues: A Socio-Psychological Approach for the base of Entrepreneurship and Sustainable Development".

The key highlights of the Conference are as follows :-

PHASE - I

The conference started with a prayer. The conference was student-led in the first phase.

The Director Rev. Fr. Simon Raj initiated the phase I by giving some word of blessings.

The event formally started with lamp lighting. After that, the inaugural addresses of the guests began. The chief guest was Mr. Johnson Abraham. He praised the initiative by the college.

The presiding guest, Dr. Sunita Wahal spoke about the relevance of the theme.

The last address was by the guest of honour, Ms. Deeksha Upadhyay. She began her address by praising the college's motto and the photographs in the auditorium.

DATE: 8 DECEMBER, 2023, FRIDAY

TIME: 9:30 A.M. ONWARDS

VENUE: SEMINAR HALL, SPIPS

ABOUT SPIPS

Established in July 2010, St. Paul Institute of Professional Studies (SPIPS) is a Self-financed Christian Minority Institute, approved as such by the Government of India. The Institute is NAAC 'A' Grade Accredited. The Institute is named after the great Christian Scholar and Missionary, St. Paul, who firmly believed in the power of the Word and wisdom to enlighten and unify the whole humanity. It is owned and managed by the Catholic Diocese of Indore. Along with academic excellence, SPIPS wishes to uphold and impart moral and spiritual values to its students. SPIPS is committed to providing an environment which will enable the students to carefully nurture their skills and talents, so that their capabilities shine forth in all its splendour. Thus, SPIPS with its motto "Let Your Light Shine" aims to form global citizens with professionalism and efficiency, character and commitment, who will take our nation and the world to greater heights.

ABOUT THE THEME

This theme signifies a forward-looking approach to management, emphasizing the dual pillars of innovation and sustainability. Innovation takes center stage, advocating for pioneering entrepreneurial strategies. This could encompass adopting emerging technologies, fostering creativity, and embracing transformative approaches to problem-solving. The goal is to equip organizations with the tools to navigate the complexities of the modern business landscape. Simultaneously, a commitment to sustainable practices underscores a responsibility to balance economic success with environmental and social considerations.

The symposium serves as a platform for thought leaders, researchers, and practitioners to converge, exchange ideas, and explore the intersections of innovation and sustainability in the realm of management. By charting a path to global excellence, the event aims to contribute to the ongoing dialogue on how businesses can not only succeed but also become positive forces for change on a global scale.

TRACKS

- Innovation and Technology Management • Disaster or Emergency Management
- International Marketing and Market Expansion • Financial Management and Risk Mitigation
- Supply Chain Management and Global Logistics • Entrepreneurship and Innovation Ecosystem
- Education and Knowledge Transfer in Management • Management Ethics and Social Impact

REPORT :

This conference was an impactful and insightful event. The guest of honour Dr. Ashesh Tiwari provided deep knowledge about NEP and also encouraged students to go beyond the books. The keynote speakers Prof. Nareina Ringo, International speaker, enlightened students about BRICS and Geopolitical issues affecting Management studies and Mr. Prashant Kulkarni motivated students to choose entrepreneur as their career path. Dr. Chanchala Jain was session chair, she gave her precious remarks towards the end of the conference.

Mr. Anish Baxi and Ms. Sneha Thakur were the conference coordinators and they led the core committee team consisting of 22 students. Delegates from other colleges, 46 students from SPIPS and all our esteemed professors of Management department presented their meticulous research work on the theme "Cutting - Edge Management Research: Charting the Path to Global Excellence Through Innovative Entrepreneurial Strategies and Sustainable Practises". All the topics chosen were eclectic and very well aligned with the given tracks. Certificate were given to all the presenters and the core committee members.

Overall it was a tremendously successful event. We are thankful to the Department of Management for conducting this exceptional event.
